

Discipleship Foundations

Welcome and Instructions

Welcome to an incredible study of Biblical truths. The material in this study is designed to help you grow in your relationship to Jesus Christ. Discipleship Foundations groups can be held in person or online. If you are participating in the online groups an email containing the lesson and login information will be sent directly to you each week.

The instructions for this study are simple. You will be invited to ask the Holy Spirit to reveal insights and applications. We will take turns reading the material. During the reading underline what stands out and then share what stood out and why. We have found that sharing insights helps us process new information and apply it to our lives. It also helps others to see new perspectives.

When sharing please be respectful of each other and of the time. We want everyone to feel welcome and grow from the insights they receive. This group is designed to take advantage of the material presented and we ask that you refrain from correcting others, expounding on other material, or entering a teaching mode.

Additional material is available for each lesson on our website <https://experienceordination.org/>. To access the material, visit the website and sign up for the Discipleship Foundations course under the "Training" tab. This is a free resource to help you dig deeper into each lesson.
